

Horetown House

Congratulations on your recent engagement.
Thank you for considering Horetown House as a venue for your upcoming Wedding Reception.

The House

Horetown House is nestled on acres of parkland close to the picturesque village of Foulksmills in County Wexford and is exclusively yours for your wedding day.

Built circa the 1700's, Horetown House has earned an enviable reputation for exceptional food and traditional hospitality. Following careful and sympathetic restoration during 2005, it offers pure opulence in a relaxed and friendly environment.

The warm atmosphere envelops you as soon as you enter. Our elegant drawing rooms, with open log fires, provide an ambience of comfort and sheer pleasure for your guests to relax and enjoy your wedding.

Relax and unwind in our comfy bedrooms. Each has it's own name, luxurious linens and wonderful antique beds. Bathe in roll top or Jacuzzi baths, sing in power showers and wrap yourself in fluffy bath robes. Wake up in the morning, refreshed and ravenous, ready for a hearty breakfast and a stroll in the gardens. There are 10 rooms in the House, just enough for your bridal party and close family. There is also an abundance of off site accommodation in the area, B&B as well as self catering which we can assist you in sourcing.

Civil Ceremonies

Horetown House is now available as a Civil Wedding venue. To arrange a Civil Ceremony the Bride & Groom should contact their Registrar who will outline the requirements to go forward with their plans.

At Horetown House, we can make your Ceremony a truly memorable occasion. The Ceremony is performed in either one of our drawing rooms or the Major Lackin Dining room.

Up to 50 guests can be seated in our drawing room for a civil ceremony, larger numbers can be facilitated in an adjoining room with a PA System if required.

Ours is a very intimate venue which offers the Bride & Groom and their guests privacy and luxury and a sense of serenity.

Marquee Weddings New for 2011

For 2011 we at Horetown House are really excited to offer you our very own pole tent marquee, at no extra cost to you. Due to increasing demand for our Marquee Weddings we have invested in our own marquee, saving couples on average €6,000 in hire fees which allows us to cater for weddings up to 200 guests. At Horetown House we treat our Marquee Weddings exactly the same as our House Weddings, using the same high standard of delph, cutlery, linen and glassware, to serve the exquisite food our kitchen is renowned for.

The Weekend Wedding

The Weekend wedding is becoming very popular at Horetown House. The second day gives the Bride & Groom time to relax with their guests and families. We offer a Buffet or BBQ which extra guests may be invited to this second day and can provide outdoor entertainment for your guests. For those having a small number to their ceremony and reception this is an ideal way to include friends and family who would like to take part in your celebrations, and is an ideal opportunity to involve children who may not attend the day before.

As you can see, this is a very relaxed day and a wonderful add on to any wedding and it extends the whole event giving you more time to spend with your friends and families before setting off on your honeymoon.

House Weddings Upstairs

Drinks Reception will be held in front Hall.

For all Weddings at Horetown House, parties will have the use of the entrance hall for their drinks reception, along with the two drawing rooms, to allow their guests to relax while photos are being taken. Your party will also have full use of these rooms in the evening after the meal should they prefer some quiet time away from the Band or DJ downstairs

Weddings up to 30 Guests

We offer you the Major Lackin Private dining room, giving your party an intimate, personal atmosphere, with old world style and luxury.

Weddings of less than 40.

The stone room, which is the oldest part of The Cellar, is ideal for numbers under 40 and allows the newer section of the restaurant to be used for seating, with sofas and low tables for your guests to relax before dancing the night away in the Cherry Room with your own bar.

Weddings of less than 60

For parties under 60 we offer dining in the Stone and the Middle section and we can set up the Cherry Room for dancing.

House Weddings Downstairs Up to 120 (2011 onwards)

We offer use of all three sections of the restaurant for dining and use the upstairs drawing rooms for your evening relaxation. As you take time to chat upstairs we will rearrange the rooms downstairs with sofas and low tables for guests to return to while your band and DJ set up in the Cherry Room. Alternatively dancing can be upstairs if numbers allow.
